Columbia College student education records are maintained in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974. Written student consent is required for access and release of information defined as educational records in federal and state law. A student's directory information (name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, program of study, enrollment status, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and most recent education institution attended) may be released upon request unless the Admissions and records office receives written notification that a student reserves the right to authorize in writing, on an individual request basis, the access and release of the directory information. Columbia College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, or disability. The College complies with the Civil Rights Act of 1964, related executive orders 11246 and 11375, Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veteran's Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974 and all Civil Rights Laws of the state of Virginia.
